Brenda Thompson seconded, all voted in favor and motion carried.

DISCUSSION OF EQUIPMENT – VFW

Mayor Altnauer advised the council about meeting with VFW representative Tom Johnson regarding looking for a piece of equipment for Veteran's Park. He said they wanted to get a Howitzer and have been put on a nationwide list but do not know when they will get it.

It will require a 10 X 16 concrete pad, fence and a sign.

They asked that we do our part and keep kids off.

It will be placed between the memorial and the tennis court.

Brandie Owens made motion to approve the request for military equipment to be placed at Veteran's Park by the VFW.

Brenda Thompson seconded, all voted in favor and motion carried.

BUDGET AMENDMENT – LMIG REVENUE

Debbie Kilgore advised the council the amount of revenue budgeted for the LMIG grant was incorrect and should have been $20,477.50, an increase of $1,325.50. She said she would amend seasonal items by the same amount in the expenses to keep the budget balanced.

Brandie Owens made motion to approve the general fund budget amendment of $1,325.50.

Brenda Thompson seconded, all voted in favor and motion carried.

UPDATE – PICKLE BALL COURT

Mayor Altnauer informed the council that the contractor has started on the project. It has been pressure washed, they are now working on the cracks in the asphalt and the net is up between the two courts.
